Q2. Do I need to cover myself with any other insurance or is the HSBC complimentary travel insurance sufficient?

You may wish to seek advice from your insurance advisor to determine if this complimentary travel insurance is sufficient to meet your and your family protection needs. If you choose not to seek advice from your insurance advisor, you should consider whether this policy is suitable for your and your family protection needs.

Q3. What is the claims process?

You can file your claims directly with MSIG. The easiest way to submit your claim is through MSIG's website at <https://www.msig.com.sg/claims/personal-insurance/travel-insurance>

For claims related enquiries, please email to MSIG at banca_hs@sg.msig-asia.com with your policy number.

Q4. How long is the claim process?

For non-complicated cases, claim reimbursement typically takes 15 working days upon receipt of full completed claim documents. For claims related assistance, please email to MSIG at banca_hs@sg.msig-asia.com with your policy/claim number.

Q5. Can I top up the insurance coverage?

As this is a complimentary group travel policy, we do not allow top up of coverage. However, you can consider buying a TravelSure Policy available from HSBC website to supplement your coverage.

Q6. I have charged my Family Member's full travel fare to my HSBC Card, but I am not travelling with them. Will they be insured under this complimentary travel insurance policy?

Yes.

Q7. Is there any limit on the number of children to be covered?

No.

Q8. How does this complimentary insurance work if I already have an existing travel insurance from other insurance companies?

This insurance will pay on top of your existing insurance if it is a lump sum benefit (e.g. Travel Delay). For benefits which are on a reimbursement basis (e.g. medical expenses), you can only claim the eligible expenses from either of the policies. If you have exhausted the sum insured from one policy, you can submit the remaining excess claim amount to the next policy subject to its terms and conditions.

Q9. For benefits where the coverage is up to $XXX for Family, does that mean that the same limits apply if I am claiming for myself?

The sum insured for family is shared amongst family members travelling together on the same trip. Some benefits come with sub-limits for each person. If this is not indicated, an Insured Person travelling alone can claim up to the Sum Insured indicated for family per trip.

Q10. Can my trip which commence from outside of Singapore be covered?

No, only trips commencing from Singapore are covered under this complimentary travel insurance.

Q11. How do I activate the complimentary travel insurance?

Simply charge your full travel fare to your HSBC Card, including air tickets which have been paid jointly by your HSBC Card and air miles redemption to enjoy automatic coverage of this insurance.

Q12. I am a supplementary cardholder, can I also be covered under the complimentary travel insurance?

Yes, as long as you had charged your full travel fare to the HSBC card.

Q13. What is defined as a full travel fare?

It refers to the total fare for the public transport such as flight, rail or cruise for your trip that has fixed and established routes only, which is fully charged to your HSBC Card by the transport operator or travel agent. This also includes air tickets paid jointly by your HSBC Card and air miles redemption. However, it excludes rental vehicles, taxis and all modes of transportation that are chartered or arranged as part of a tour, even if the services are regularly scheduled.

Q14. What is the definition of "children"?
