 - ii. give effect to:
 1. applicable law, rule, regulation;
 2. a change, recommendation, order, requirement, notice, direction, code, circular or guidance issued by any regulatory, supervisory, governmental, statutory authority, stock exchange, self-regulatory, or resolution body having jurisdiction over us or a court of competent jurisdiction;
 - iii. reflect changes to industry or market conditions or practice;
 - iv. align with standards or expectations including in respect of:
 1. banking and financial services practices;
 2. environmental, social and governance practices;
 3. consumer and investor protection practices;
 4. cyber, digital, technology (including financial technology (FinTech)) practices e.g., those relating to crypto-assets, digital assets, virtual assets, asset tokenisation and artificial

- intelligence (including generative artificial intelligence and machine learning);
 - 5. operational resilience and data management practices; or
 - 6. taxation and transfer pricing practices; or
 - 7. otherwise protect our legitimate interests.
- c. To the extent reasonably practicable, we'll give you reasonable notice of any changes to this Programme terms and conditions before such this Programme terms and conditions take effect.
 - d. We can choose how to give this notice to you. This may include:
 - i. contacting you directly (through mail, email, post or via mobile);
 - ii. placing signs or notices at our branches;
 - iii. publishing the change on our website; and
 - iv. using any other method we think is reasonably appropriate.
 - e. If you don't agree with a change, you can cancel your existing credit card, after paying all amounts you may owe us.
